Mental Health Research UK - Christmas Card

Dear Supporter

Here is the Mental Health Research UK Christmas card for 2021 designed by Ed Grace. Ed is the son of John Grace QC one of our founding Trustees. Ed Grace is an illustrator working in traditional and digital media. In recent years he has worked extensively on science and space related projects including UK astronaut Tim Peake's Sunday Times Bestselling book 'Ask an Astronaut'.

If you would like to order some cards it would be helpful to know by November 1st as we shall be going to the printers then. The cards cost £10 for 10 cards including postage and packing.

Please click on the web page to place your order.

Thank you very much for your continued support.

Clair
