

Rachel Dakin, Trustee

Rachel is a communication consultant working at KPMG. She is the London Director of the Institute of Internal Communication. Prior to joining KPMG, Rachel worked for reputation management consultancy Lansons. With a background in employee engagement and a personal interest in mental health, Rachel has a particular interest in de-stigmatising mental illness in the workplace.

Rachel became a trustee in January 2019.